New Personnel Join Girl Scouts Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho

(Spokane, Wash−July 18, 2012): The following new employees have joined the Girl Scouts Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho council staff.

Teri Dykeman has joined GSEWNI as a marketing and communications specialist. She will be responsible for managing social media, advertising and promotional campaigns and strategies for existing and new council activities. Dykeman was formerly a marketing specialist with Moss Adams LLP.

Kristin Monasmith has joined GSEWNI as an events specialist. Her role will include growing existing events and developing unique community events that bring Girl Scouts, alumnae and community partners together to highlight the benefits of Girl Scouting and support the scholarship and campership programs. Monasmith was formerly a public relations and events specialist with Shriners Hospitals for Children in Spokane.

Lani Nachtsheim has joined GSEWNI as building and services manager at the Girl Scouts' Camp Four Echoes at Lake Coeur d'Alene. She is responsible for creating and managing programs and outside rentals to establish year round use of the Camp Four Echoes lodge and amenities. Nachtsheim was formerly the Camp Dart-Lo director with Camp Fire USA, Inland Northwest Council.

Christopher Dahlvig has joined GSEWNI as a staff accountant. He will be responsible for day to day accounting functions and preparation of financial statements. Dahlvig was formerly an accountant and optimization analyst with an international nonprofit organization.

About Girl Scouts Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho
Girl Scouts is the preeminent leadership development organization for girls, the leading authority on girls' healthy development and is working with girls and women to transform the leadership landscape for girls into the next century. Girl Scouts of all ages are recognizing 2012 as the Year of the Girl, with council Centennial celebrations and campaigns held throughout the year. Girl Scouts Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho serves nearly 8,000 girls and 2,600 adult volunteers in a region encompassing 67,000 miles that includes 20 counties in central and eastern Washington and 10 counties in northern Idaho. Girl Scouts builds girls of courage, confidence and character who make the world a better place. Girl Scouts Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho is committed to discovering, celebrating and fostering the leader in every girl.
