

SU 492 Winter Snow Camp

Where: Puffer Butte Lodge at Fields Spring State Park

Fields Spring State Park is a winter snow park 28 miles from Clarkston. The highway is maintained to the park so even though it's high enough to practically guarantee snow we will be able to get there.

When: Friday, February 23 to Sunday, February 25, 2018

What: This is a winter troop camping event. Troops will stay in the lodge or in heated cabins near the lodge. Daisies may attend with their troop if they have a registered background check adult family member attending.

We will be snowshoeing and playing in the snow during the day including a snow person building contest. We will be sharing snowshoes so each group will snowshoe hike part of the day and have free snow play time part of the day.

In the evening we will be in the lodge in front of a roaring fire playing games, doing skits, singing songs... maybe roasting a marshmallow or doing a craft or two.

Cost: $50 per person (including adults) which covers food, lodging, snowshoe rental, craft supplies and a winter fun patch.

This is a troop event. Troops are responsible for providing Safety Wise required adults for the number of girls you are bringing and obtaining permission slips and health forms for each.

Adults must be registered and background checked.
