- Troop Funds – girls in the troop will need to decide together to put troop funds toward project
- Service Unit contributions – will depend on Service Unit funding decisions

- Family/Friend contributions
- Business donations
- Youth Service Grants
- Girl Contributions – for example, converted Cookie Dough

Girls CANNOT fund their projects in the following ways:

- Games of chance (raffles, contests, bingo)
- Product demonstration parties or other types of money-earning for another business where the Girl Scout trademark would increase that business's revenue

SUPPLEMENTAL MONEY EARNING EVENTS – REQUIRES COUNCIL APPROVAL

Girl Scout programs help girls learn and practice goal-setting, budgeting, money management and more. Money-earning events should provide an experience that allows girls to develop self-confidence and to practice and develop skills in goal-setting, budgeting, marketing, and customer relations. Examples of money-earning activities include:

- Recycling aluminum cans
- Garage sales
- Wrapping gifts at the holidays
- Craft fairs
- Badge/Journey in a Day events
- Donation coffee stand at rest stops
- Homemade wreath sales

Money-earning activities require Council pre-approval and are reviewed to ensure the activities comply with GSEWNI Policies and Standards.

Submit applications for Council approval four (4) weeks before the requested activity date. Approval for applications received less than four (4) weeks before the requested activity date is not guaranteed. The Money-earning Activity Request form can be found here - Money Earning Activity

For example, Girls CANNOT have a bake sale and tell people that they are giving the proceeds to a homeless shelter for meals, ask for pledges for a walk-a-thon to benefit breast cancer research, or hold a benefit dance to raise money for Sally's kidney operation.

If you would like to request a store gift card donation of $50 or less:

Please submit your request in writing (on your organization's official letterhead stationery) to your local Store Director and include a copy of your organization's IRS 501(c)3 tax determination letter.

You may try various local stores for donations such as Walmart and Lowes using the same requirements Safeway has set forth regarding the letterhead stationery and the organization's IRS 501(c) 3 tax determination letter.
